1 Pursuant to the Court's Order on Pretrial and Trial Procedures, the PLAINTIFF
2 hereby submits this Proposed Statement of the Case:
3

4 Plaintiff Marco Milla has filed a lawsuit against Los Angeles Police Department 5 Detectives John Vander Horck and Richard Ulley based upon allegations that the 6 Detectives unlawfully imprisoned him and caused him to be maliciously prosecuted for 7 murder and attempted murder in 2002. In summary, Plaintiff alleges that the Detectives
8 engaged in improper investigatory tactics that resulted in false evidence and inaccurate 9 testimony being received from victims and witnesses and committed other wrongful 10 conduct. Plaintiff also claims that the Detectives' actions resulted in him being 11 improperly convicted and imprisoned. The conviction was ultimately overturned in Court 12 because the Court found he was wrongfully convicted. Plaintiff seeks money damages 13 for the time that he was in prison and for the injuries he sustained. Defendants deny 14 Plaintiff's claims and contend that their actions were objectively reasonable and lawful.
